NRCB | Natural Resources Conservation Board

NRCBA Board Review Process Flowchart (Generic)

NRCB reviewable project, jurisdiction confirmed

↓

Application is filed with the NRCB. A notice of filing will be issued

↓

Deficiency review of application → If incomplete, a supplemental information request (SIR) is sent to the applicant. A sufficient response must be filed to satisfy information needs

↓

Application deemed complete ←

↓

NRCB issues a notice of application to invite public submissions

↓

Objection(s) filed?

— Yes → Pre-hearing conference scheduled, typically with 30 days' advance notice

↓

Hearing scheduled with minimum 30 days' advance notice

↓

Following the pubic hearing process, the Board reviews submissions, evidence, and application materials

→ Board reviews materials, makes its decision, and prepares decision report

— No → Board reviews materials, makes its decision, and prepares decision report

Board reviews materials, makes its decision, and prepares decision report →

Board issues decision approving the project and requests Cabinet authorization by Order in Council

Board issues decision rejecting the project application